FSB Legal Entity Identifier (LEI) Initiative Industry Advisory Panel - Membership

On 12 January 2012, the FSB called for the nomination of a small number of experts to a private sector panel advising an FSB LEI Expert Group of key stakeholders from the global regulatory community taking forward work on the Legal Entity Identifier initiative.

The Expert Group is pleased to announce the organizations that will be represented on the Industry Advisory Panel:

Organisation
Alfa-Bank
Alfred Sloan Foundation
Association of National Numbering Agencies (ANNA)
Brazilian Financial and Capital Markets Association
CME Group
Corporation for National Research Initiatives
International DOI Foundation (DOI)
Depository Trust and Clearing Corporation (DTCC)
Enterprise Data Management Council (EDM)
European Banking Federation
Federation of Euro-Asian Stock Exchanges
German Investment and Asset Management Association (BVI)
Global Financial Markets Association (GFMA)
GS1
S.D. Indeval S.A. de C.V.
ISITC Europe
Investment Industry Association of Canada
Investment Management Association
International Organization for Standardization (ISO) Technical Committee 68
International Organization for Standardization (ISO) Working Group 6 (LEI)
Japan Securities Dealers Association
Japanese Bankers Association
Korean Financial Investment Association
Mexican Bankers Association
OpenCorporates
Regis-TR
Risk Management Association
J.M. Smucker Company
Society for Worldwide Interbank Financial Telecommunication (SWIFT)
Thomson Reuters
Tokyo Stock Exchange
Trade Repository Sub-group of the OTC Derivatives Working Group of the Treasury Market Association of Hong Kong
XBRL

The Expert Group looks forward to valuable input from the Panel to assist the FSB in fulfilling the G-20 mandate “to prepare recommendations for the appropriate [LEI] governance framework, representing the public interest,” by the G-20 Summit in June 2012.